Want to Leave a Legacy?

Our vision at the Windsor Parks, Recreation & Culture Department is to leave a legacy that exemplifies health and wellness, social equity, and conservation. Starting in early 2019, we will kick off a new project of engagement with the community by adding subcommittees to our monthly Parks, Recreation & Culture Advisory Board (PRECAB). Through this, we hope you will help develop and foster the programs and services offered by the PRC Department. Subcommittees will exist in a variety of interest areas (Recreation, Parks, Trails & Open Space).

Saturdays, 8 a.m. – 7 p.m.; Sundays, Noon – 6 p.m.

'A Peek into the Past'

September 12 – January 3

Come and see what Windsor was like in years past through a collection of historic photographs from the Town of Windsor Museums' permanent collection. Construction of the Great Western Sugar Factory, snow storms, and early Main Street are only some of the historic perspectives you'll see.

Art & Heritage Center

The Art & Heritage Center (AHC) is a hub for the arts, culture, and history in Windsor. The AHC hosts a number of exhibits and programs throughout the year, and aspires to increase cultural opportunities for the Windsor community. Visit our website to learn more about the programs, tours, and exhibitions offered by the Culture Division at windsorgov.com/culture.

'Tycoon vs. Cartoon'

January 4 – March 27

A collection of cartoons by America's first political cartoonist, Thomas Nast, will make a visit to Windsor. Nast is best known for his invention and development of symbols, like the Republican Elephant, Democratic Donkey, and a goatee-wearing Uncle Sam. During the presidential election of 1872, Horace Greeley and Ulysses S. Grant went head to head. Nast's support of Grant and critical illustrations of Greeley influenced many Americans. Ulysses S. Grant won the presidency, leaving Horace Greeley "crushed by the unmerciful ridicule Nast had heaped on him."

'People and Places of the Past'

March 29 – June 21

Did you know that Windsor was the hometown of a famous opera singer? Do you know the history behind some of Windsor's most prominent buildings and events that happened there? Visit this mini exhibit to dive into Windsor's little known history.
